

Art and fashion

THE elegant and enterprising Samyukta Nair (need we mention hotel chain heiress?) came up with a wonderful idea for her Colaba lifestyle boutique. She asked leading interior designer Rooshad Shroff (those fantastic window displays at Hermes? He's the man behind it) to collaborate with young Indian fashion designers Saaksha Bhat and Kinni Kamat and make a range of tableware for the store. The result is a vivid range of marble inlay plates that are as artistic as they are functional. Samyukta's cocktail saw Tarini Jindal, Shaheen Abbas and Samyukta's mom Madhu Jain show up for a dekho and a sundowner yesterday.

Samyukta Nair and Rooshad Shroff (centre) with the designers