Here's where the art is

Reserve your final weekend in March for art. Your diarist can now confirm that Bandra's Taj Lands End will be the venue for a first-of-its-kind, three-day show in which nine diverse, leading galleries from Colaba will come together. These galleries — Galerie Mirchandani + Steinruecke, Volte, Chemould Prescott Road, The Guild, Project 88, Gallery Maskara, Chatterjee & Lal, Lakeerein, and Sakshi — have roped in architect Rooshad Shroff to transform the hotel's garden area into a cutting-edge art space. Apart from a soiree planned for a select clientele, the event will have designer Sandeep Khosla, among others, hosting a champagne hour, in which he will do a special walkabout tour with a special guest list of only 30.
